Eternally

Steve Lawrence

Hold me now, the way you never did before
Cause I feel like I was stranded on the shore
Far too long, I thought that I could live the life without you
I was wrong
I drifted on an endless seaHold me now, don't leave me with this pain inside
Since you left, an emptiness I just can't hide
I believe
That you and I were made for one another
Can't you see?
You'll only get the best of me
My life will never be the same again
I guess you'll never understand
You stole my heart and never gave it back
So keep it forever and ever
I want to dive into the open sea
Be anywhere you want to be
I'll be your guide on through the darkest night
And I will love you forever and ever
EternallyHere I am, still waiting for a sign to come
A little step behind
But never giving up my run
Say you will
Say you will be mine forever after Holding on
There's something you might want to know
My life will never be the same again
I guess you'll never understand
You stole my heart and never gave it back
So keep it forever and ever
I want to dive into the open sea
Be anywhere you want to be
I'll be your guide on through the darkest night
And I will love you forever and ever
EternallySomewhere along the road
You'll be searching for your peace of mind
But nothing else you'll find
But sorrow left behind
But I just can't let go
Don't want to take the risk of losing you

Does someone knows the way
The price I got to payMy life will never be the same again
I guess you'll never understand
You stole my heart and never gave it back
So keep it forever and ever
I want to dive into the open sea
Be anywhere you want to be
I'll be your guide on through the darkest night
And I will love you forever and ever
Ever eternally
Forever eternally
Forever eternally
