Exile

Bad Llama

It's hard to realise
Been searching for the truth
Have I always been second best?
Am I not the one for you?
Are you somewhere out there?
Cos I'm cold and I am scared
You've held me back for so long babe
My destination's anywhere

I can't find you
I can't find you
I can't find you
I can't find you
If can't find you
If can't find you
If can't find you
Then I won't try to

Exiled with open eyes
Cos now I know the truth
I have always been second best
I meant fucking shit to you
And now the rain has come again
And I have never been this scared
You've held me back for so long
I don't know who I am
I don't know who I am
Tell me who I am
Tell me who I am
Tell me who I am
Tell me who I am
Just tell me who I am
Come on tell me
Tell me who I am.
