Lesson Learned

Lil Wyte

Sittinâ€™ on the corner, Smoking marijuana
Age 12 never thought Iâ€™d have a picture off inside the XXL
Started free stylinâ€™ 16 in the cafeteria
Rolled a hot 16 and all them then knew I was serious
White boys in Nero introduced me to the Shelby Forest Click
I ended up getting on 10 of they 15 songs the shit was sick
My dad put up the cheese for us to get them pressed
Man I swear to God that guy thought we were the muthafuckinâ€™ best

Who knew a year later Three 6 would get a copy of it
And Iâ€™d come out with a solo deal yelling Mafia Bitch
They felt like I traded on them I was following dreams
Had a baby on the way and couldn't afford diaper rash cream
So what do ya think I did when I got to my crossroad
Kept on walkinâ€™ straight, never looked back once and went with my own soul
Though it came with consequences, conflict then erupted
Every time we saw each other we was fightinâ€™ over nothing

One day they sent a junkie to my home to do me harm
I was out of town so they commenced to beatinâ€™ up my mom
She had brain damage after the first blow to the head
Had to spend a couple of weeks in the hospital bed
Her condition got worse and started stressinâ€™ out my dad
Four years into all the bills he had a massive heart attack
The doctor said heâ€™d be OK but you know how them things go
Now I live my life without either one of my fuckinâ€™ folks
Because my motherâ€™s mind is gone, she donâ€™t recognize my face
And my dad, yeah heâ€™s passed away, heâ€™s in a better place
But I blame myself if I would of never signed that contract
Maybe shit would be different and I would have both of my parents back
But neither of them wanted that, they wanted me to shine
They know I was exceptional with an extraordinary mind
So I say thank you to my gift and my curse
The fact that they wonâ€™t see the Sno album drop is what really hurts

So all the people that were involved in causing me this pain
Understand you poured gasoline in the center of my flame
And Iâ€™ll keep burnin' â€˜til the end of time, youâ€™ll never put me out
If that was your attempt to shut me up, youâ€™ll need to choose another route

Now Iâ€™m colder than ever, I got the world goin' crazy
While ya still only gettin' 20 people in the day-z
Iâ€™m the man bitch, you should have stuck along for the ride
Wyte Music is on the rise, and now my bodyâ€™s full of pride
Muthafucka
