Stone Letter

Tomahawk

well i'm upset
cause I can check the slack on your linespeakin free like we used to be for such a long timei threw you a stone letter smooth or rough
i hope you read it one day and feel the lovei throw it a stone letter
thinkin i could know you better
cause i don't know you
know you anymorei wrote it
you caught it
don't deny you thought about it
you don't know me know me anymorebaby your skeleton is talking too loud
i think i hear
i think i'm near your forest of cloudswatching you degrade yourself is degrading me
i've got no say but you know i'll go lower than you thinki threw it
and you don't know me
know me anymorei said it
thinkin i could show you better
you got it don't deny you felt that rock hit
know me any morei sent it

you read it
i sent it
