You'll Never Know

Pleasure P

They say everybody is somebody's fool,
I guess I was a fool for you
It was a very fast beginning,
I was on a mission,
I was tryin' to make you my girl,
I didn't care, didn't listen,
Love was clouding my vision,
Cupid's arrow hard at work,
And with no hesitation,
We were on our way to love making on the regular
Then you're behavin' started changin',
With all your complainin', complainin', complainin',
[Chorus]Girl you don't know,
What you did to me,
The games - all the lying and cheating
You'll never know what you meant to me,
Just can't believe I put you first for everything
Everywhere you go, Every step you take,
Your concience is eating you, you gon' see my face,
I showed you love, what a big mistake
You, you, you, you, You'll never know
Now everytime we have an argument
You want to call your friend
To tell them how I ain't right
When I'm the one who holds you when you're sick
Or whenever you feel down
Baby, just tell me why (whhhyyy)

(At the drop of a dime, throwing out every lie)
How she end up in New York City (Cityyy)
(I don't wanna take it back but I really want her back)
But, my pride won't let me do it!
[Chorus]Girl you don't know,
What you did to me,
The games - all the lying and cheating
You'll never know what you meant to me,
Just can't believe I put you first for everything
Everywhere you go, every step you take,
Your concience is eating you, you gon' see my face,

I showed you love, what a big mistake
You, you, you, you, You'll never know
Girl, go go girl, you trifling
Soon you'll be crying
For my love cause I'm tired
And I just can't light you're fire
You'll never
[Chorus x2]Girl you don't know,
What you did to me,
The games - all the lying and cheating
You'll never know what you meant to me,
Just can't believe I put you first for everything
Everywhere you go, Every step you take,
Your concience is eating you, you gon' see my face,
I showed you love, what a big mistake
You, you, you, you, you, you, You'll never know
