Revenant

Brainstorm

[Bonus Track]He's back! Painful memories and a restless soul cause him to come back, back to save the souls which he lives off. But... he wants to save us.The decimation of all that is pure, a system that feeds their machine with the souls of the lost, destroying all from the known to the arcaneReminding voices you fear since a long time Darkness falls upon souls Be blind to yourself, the evil inside, manipulation of all your dreamsCrawling memories ment forever
The angels will sing the song for youSomeone save me.....Revenant
Send me a witness You'll stand or burnLooking down upon a world desperate changes it goes through in the arms of the lost, created by souls the inner flesh, a deeper controlWhen you parted the sea Will you save us from mysteries
The tears of remorse Too late for regrets Another world to forgetYou watch'em comin' one by one You're on the prowl and they're on the runSomeone save me.....Revenant
Send me a witness
You'll stand or burnNow you parted the sea
And you saved us from mysteries emotions are gone, the suffering inside Is this the truth , that you feel
