

(This Ain't) No Thinkin' Thing

Trace Adkins

I've been thinkin' 'bout our love situation
All this attraction in the present tense
I've reached the only logical conclusion
Love ain't supposed to make sense This ain't no thinkin' thing, right brain, left brain
It goes a little deeper than that
It's a chemical, physical, emotional devotion
Passion that we can't hold back There's nothin' that we need to analyze
There ain't no rhyme or reason why
'Cause this ain't, this ain't no thinkin' thing Forget mathematical equations
Self help psychology
Gray matter don't matter much darlin'
When it's gettin' down to you and me, oh This ain't no thinkin' thing, right brain, left brain
It goes a little deeper than that
It's a chemical, physical, emotional devotion
Passion that we can't hold back There's nothin' that we need to analyze
There ain't no rhyme or reason why
'Cause this ain't, this ain't no thinkin' thing There's nothing that we need to analyze
There ain't no rhyme or reason why
'Cause this ain't, this ain't no thinkin' thing
This ain't, no this ain't no thinkin' thing No this ain't no thinkin' thing
This ain't no thinking thing, ain't no thinkin' thing, girl
This ain't no thinking thing, baby
This ain't, this ain't, this ain't no thinking thing
This ain't no thinking thing
