

No Visitors

He Is Legend

No Visitors or friends you don't need Ocrack a smile, Miserable Fuck Get rid of your baby teethStay invisible but tangled in weeds you've been walking miles covered in muck it's starting to wear off on me.You're the only one you're the only one afraid of me I've a habit of hiding my addicts in attic I'm widdlin' wands
Black MagicAnd some say that's the Sun in a disguise
And He's in the sky tonight
One day you can Worship who you like but you're on your own this time.It's the greatest illusions I've seen in my life
the greatest illusions I've seen in my life
delusions illuminated in the night now how can you hide the light?You're the only one You're the only one who can save me
I've a rabbit in my hat now and an ace up my shirt sleeve
I'm the one you can trust
Come with meAnd some say that's the Sun in a disguise
And He's in the sky tonight
One day you can Worship who you like but you're on your own this time.Now how does it feel that you know we're not alone is it anymore real that you found out on your own.There's two Suns Shining?Is it just me, am I losing my mind?It's the greatest illusions I've seen in my life
the greatest illusions I've seen in my life
delusions illuminated in the night
now how can you hide the light?And some say that's the Sun in a disguise
And He's in the sky tonight
One day you can Worship who you like but you're on your own this time
