Malaina

KEIKO

I whisper your precious name
Searching for something beautiful
Something as pure as you were

Malaina
From the moon I can see your smile
Malaina
Oh my love
My beautiful

As I become the silence I'm vanishing
A faded visage of someone
That I once was

Ever so colorless
Are the deepest shades of this

Wrap safe within these broken arms
A million strides
Against the impending storm

How white noise stirs for tears that burn
This moment breathes such weakening

Malaina
From the moon I can see your smile
Malaina
Oh my love
My beautiful
