

A Request

Pinback

Crack in the side, no one will stop
Give it a while, no one wants to read about it
Find a way, no I don't want to spend another second far away
Send your regards to the others
My time in here is up and I don't think I wanna stay
Ripping the arms off Back in the scene, no one is here
Left in a hurry, only is a shadow of dust
Honestly, where did everybody go
I'm sick of dreaming about all the things that could have been Something is off from the other
I wanna start my life now, I want a way to begin
Simple enough all told I, I shattered it all again
And you know, if you like
You can go anytime (I shattered it all again) Oh-oh-oh... Break in the feed, whose on the line
Fire in the cellar, everything is falling apart
Finally, everyone will know And you know, if you like (I shattered it all again)
You can go anytime (I shattered it all again) [x2]
And I can dream for a place to go
And I can reach for light Oh-oh-oh... I don't want to spend another second far away [x4]
