

So Many Things

Jessi Colter

So many things, so many things
So many things stand between us
Your heart and mine have touched this time
Our eyes can see usSome bright blue autumn morning
Some wintery moonlight night
You'll reach for me and I'll comeTouch me, hold me like you do
Feel me, feel you
Do you know this timeWill there be another day
Is there any place you'll say
AnytimeAnytime you want me, babe
Is all you have to say
Anytime
