

Returning to the Fold

The Thermals

I regret leaving my soul I forgot I needed it, to feel maybe when I die I'll just grab it real quick I'm coming right back I regret leaving my mind I forgot I needed it, to think and maybe to keep me alive can't believe I got so far with a head so empty but I still have eyes wait for me
wait for me but I still have feet
wait for me
wait for me I regret leaving it all I forgot I needed God, like a big brother and maybe when I die yeah when I die
I will die escaping
I will die returning to the fold but I still have eyes
wait for me
wait for me but I still have feet
wait for me
wait for me but I still have faith if I ever had faith
wait for me
wait for me
