

Trailer for Rent

Pistol Annies

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I left the beans on
I put my jeans on
And drove down to the Jonesville News and Times
I said to the man I need to place an ad
How much will it be for the four lines?
'Cause my husband's pissed me off for the last time Trailer for rent, no down payment
Comes with some holes and dents
Where I got tired of his shit
Call if your interested, trailer for rent It's been ten years, ten thousand beers
And he's still sittin' right there on the couch
I played the misses and I've done the dishes
'Bout time somebody got the hell out
My phone ought to be ringing about now 'Cause there's a trailer for rent,
No down payment
Comes with some holes
And dents where I got tired of his shit
Call if your interested, trailer for rent There's a trailer for rent (trailer for rent),
No down payment (no down payment)
Comes with some holes and dents
Where I got tired of his shit
You better call if your interested, trailer for rent Trailer for rent (trailer for rent)
Trailer for rent
