When Love Was Not a Word

Cass Elliot

Hey, there, what'd ya say
Did I hear right the first time, baby
Am I here or am I crazy, baby
Baby

Look into my eyes and tell me once again
And you'll see me now, the same as I was then
When love was not a word
But a feeling

Hitching a ride to anywhere
Tying a ribbon in my hair
Hide and go seek in the pouring rain
Making love and not feelin' shame

And we laughed and we cried and we loved our music
The road that we chose, it was ours to choose it

Love was not a word
But the only sound we heard
Love was not a word
But a feeling

Where do I go from here
Who will be my inspiration
Who can give the same sensation, baby
you gave me

Won't you take my hand
And hold me close to you
And forgive me if I talk about the things we used to do

Love was not a word
But the only sound we heard
Love was not a word
But a feeling
