

Something's Gotta Give

LeAnn Rimes

Jenny's got a job, a cat named Jake,
Thirty one candles on her birthday cake
Next year
Thought by now she'd have a man
Two car seats and a minivan
But it still ain't here (hey!)She's been lookin' for Mr. Right so long
But all she's found is Mr. Wrong
And that's the pits
She's drawn a line that she won't cross
Her and time are facing off
She says something's gotta give[Chorus]
Something's gotta give me butterflies
Something's gotta make me feel alive
Something's gotta give me dreams at night
Something's gotta make me feel alright
I don't know where it is
But something's gotta giveFriday night she had a date
Cell phone junky a half hour late
That's the biz baby
She's riding out of this twist of fate
She's had all that she can take
She says something's gotta giveSomething's gotta give me butterflies
Something's gotta make me feel alive
Yeah something's gotta give me dreams at night
Something's gotta make me feel alright
I don't know where it is
But something's gotta giveI swear
There's got to be a meant to be for me out there
Somewhere someday
I'm gonna find someone, somehow, someway
Yea yeah, ah ahJenny's got a job, a cat named Jake,
Thirty one candles on her birthday cake
Next yearOh she thought by now she'd have a man
Two car seats and a minivan
She says something's got,
Something's got,
Something's gotSomething's gotta give me butterflies
Something's gotta make me feel alive
Yeah something's gotta give me dreams at night

Something's gotta make me feel alright
I don't know what it is
But something's gotta
I don't know where it is
But something's gotta
I don't know what it is
Yeah but something's gotta give
Ah something's got to give
