Ribcage

Dubfire

We blew the doors didn't we?
Pissed in their champagne
And did a real thing didn't we?
Gave ourselves a name
And peeled away the shame
I wanted to explode
To pull my ribs apart
And let the sun insideRed stain blossoms
And all you have is kissesAnd when the sunshine
Throwin' me a lifeline
Finds it's way into my room
All I need is youWe called that love
All you have is kisses
And all I need is you.
