

Ends of the Earth

Hot Chip

You promised me the ends of the Earth but I don't want that
I just want you to feel the belief of a man
They say that love is drunk but drunk don't let you far
All I want is the you that pulls me back You promised me the ends of the Earth but I don't want that
I just want you to feel the relief of a man
They say that love is drunk but drunk don't get you far
All I want is the you that pulls me back Where I go
You tell me
My voice is
Within me
Where I go
You spell me
What I start
Is complete I try to keep myself topped up with all this good and bad
Don't wanna fall behind the pack and illness send me mad
If you were ever this complete, you've lost yourself
You've lost yourself
You need to reach beyond the star that falls straight from the shelf
You need to reach beyond the star that leads straight to your wealth You promised me the ends of the Earth but I don't want that
I just want you to feel the belief of a man
They say that love is drunk but drunk don't let you far
All I want is the you that pulls me back You promised me the ends of the Earth but I don't want that
I just want you to feel the relief of a man
They say that love is drunk but drunk don't get you far
All I want is the you that pulls me back Where I go
You tell me
My voice is
Within me
Where I go
You spell me
What I start
Is complete
