

Mental Revenge

Hank Williams, Jr.

Well I hope that the friend
You've thrown yourself with get's drunk
And loses his job
That the road your travelin' on
Get's dusty rocky and hardI couldn't make you love me
You only made me blue
So all in all
If the curtain should fall
I hope that it falls on youI'll have sweet
Sweet sweet
Mental revenge
I'll have sweet
Sweet sweet
Mental revenge
YeahWell I hope that the train from Caribou Maine
Runs over your sweet love affair
That you walk the floor from door to door
And you pull out that peroxide hairYou never was my woman
'Cause you were never true
So all in all
If the curtain should fall
I hope that it falls on youI'll have sweet
Sweet sweet
Mental revenge
I'll have sweet
Sweet sweet
Mental revenge
Yeah
