Rocket

Yellowcard

Sleeping late on warm afternoon
Waking up to bright silver moon
Silent words from my heart to youMy empty filled filled up with you
I slip another smile in your pocket
My heart is racing to you like a rocket(Rockets fly)
I slip another smile in your pocket
(Into my sky)
My heart is racing to you like a rocketMy empty filled filled up with you
I slip another smile in your pocket
My heart is racing to you like a rocket(Rockets fly)
I slip another smile in your pocket
(Into my sky)
My heart is racing to you like a rocket(Rockets fly)
I slip another smile in your pocket
(Into my sky)
My heart is racing to you like a rocket(Rockets fly)
(The two of us, we dream like one)
I slip another smile in your pocket
(Into my sky)
(Our energy could light the sun)
My heart is racing to you like a rocket(Rockets fly)
(The two of us take breath as one)
I slip another smile in your pocket
(Into my sky)
(The two of us, the two of us)
My heart is racing to you like a rocket(Rockets fly)
(The two of us, we dream like one)
I slip another smile in your pocket
(Into my sky)
(Our energy could light the sun)
My heart is racing to you like a rocket(Rockets fly)
(The two of us take breath as one)
I slip another smile in your pocket
(Into my sky)
(The two of us, the two of us)
My heart is racing to you like a rocket
