Frozen Charlotte

Natalie Merchant

Blue like the winter snow, the full moon
Black like the silhouettes of the trees
Late blooming flowers lie frozen underneath the stars
I want you to remember me that way
(Far away)
I'll be gone, will you wait for me?
(How long)
I don't know, will you wait for me?
Still, as the river grows in December
Silent and perfect blinding ice
Spring keeps her promises no cold can keep her back
I want you to remember me that way
(Far away)
I'll be gone, will you wait for me?
(How long)
I don't know, will you wait for me?
(Follow)
Don't follow me to where, where I go
(Far away)
I'll be gone, will you wait for me?
(How long)
I don't know, will you wait for me?
(Follow)
Don't follow me to where, where I've gone
(Follow)
Don't follow me to where, where I've gone
(Someday you'll take my place)
And I'll wait for you here
