easy target

Sorry Figure

Every time I hear your voice on the phone
Every time you leave me so long alone
Every time I think that my heart's gonna break
You know at my door, you're back on the make
If your hands were tied
If your eyes were closed
Anyway you dish it out, baby
I just couldn't say no
Easy target, open season and you are the reason, baby
Easy target, I got caught, you are such a good shot now
Easy target, hard to believe I'm so reckless and naive
Easy target, easy for me to let you do what you please
Maybe I'm a heartbreak waiting to be
Maybe lady luck is laughing with me
I'm an easy target deep in the dark
You took your aim, you hit your mark
If your hands were tied
If your eyes were closed
Anyway you dish it out, baby
I just couldn't say no
Easy target, open season and you are the reason, baby
Easy target, I got caught, you are such a good shot now
Easy target, it's hard to believe I'm so reckless and naive
Easy target, easy for me to let you do what you please
If your hands were tied
If your eyes were closed
Anyway you dish it out, baby
I just couldn't say no
Easy target, open season and you are the reason, baby
Easy target, I got caught, you are such a good shot now
Easy target, it's hard to believe I'm so reckless and naive
Easy target, easy for me to let you do what you please
