

Drink Me

Anna Nalick

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I hope that you're impressed
She's so pretty, I'm jealous
And she's lost like Ellis
In a painted past, in a looking glass
I see me looking back I'll take another drink me, baby
Slowly I'll disappear
And wear my life like a barbed-wire necklace
And let's play truth or dare So you're a fan of Coltrane?
I wanna be Kurt Cobain
When the truth gets scary
I'll take my gin and cherry And some drink me, they'll be Plath and Joplin with verse
Writing suiciders, Kennedy and Monroe
Come to see my rock show
I'll be there in the front row I'll take another drink me, baby
Slowly I'll disappear
And wear my life like a barbed-wire necklace
So let's play truth or dare I won't be around
To play your games
There will come a day
When you won't know my name I'll get smarter
With every swallow
You'll wake tomorrow
And things won't be the same Talk about the weather
Will you miss me ever?
Lately I'm obsessed
And I need the rest I hope that you're impressed
I need the rest
And my head's a mess
I need the rest, I need the rest
I need the rest
