

How Does It Feel

Anti-Nowhere League

Here comes that voice again, falling like acid rain
You gave me dreams, I cannot have
You call me mental sick, I call you hypocrite
Underneath we're all the same
So where do we go from here,
It's down in the gutter I fear
Your blood will trickle down the rain
If you try to break my legs,
I won't crawl, I won't beg
If you try to break my arms,
I won't kill, I won't harm
If you try to cut my veins,
I won't bleed, I won't scream
But if you try to take my day,
I won't beg, I won't pray
..So how does it feel..
You gave me your innocence
I gave you ignorance
I gave you death without the pain
It's just a crying shame,
I won't remember your name
The'll rearrange me till I'm sane...
If you try to break my legs,
I won't crawl, I won't beg
If you try to break my arms,
I won't kill, I won't harm
If you try to cut my veins,
I won't bleed, I won't scream
But if you try to take my day,
I won't beg, I won't pray
..So how does it feel..
