

Too Hard to Say Goodbye

Westlife

Everytime I close my eyes
You're all that I can see
I hold you in my heart
And know you're watching over me
Standing by your side
It felt like I could fly
If I could be half the man
That you are in my eyes
And I could face the darkest day
And fight the tears inside
I can't turn the page
Or hold back the time
It's too hard to say goodbye
It's too hard to say goodbye
From you I learned it all
You would never let me fall
Love won't come undone
Between a father and his son
Standing by your side
Felt like I could fly
If I could be half the man
That you are in my eyes
I would face the darkest day
And fight the tears inside
I can't turn the page
Or hold back the time
It's too hard to say goodbye
It's too hard to say goodbye
There will come a day
I'll have to walk alone
And I'll have to make it on my own
You taught me all there is to know
Dad, I'll never let you go
Standing by your side
It felt like I could fly
If I could be half the man
That you are in my eyes
I would face the darkest day
Fight back the tears inside
But I can't turn this page
Or hold back the time
It's too hard to say goodbye
Just can't say goodbye
