Maryland

Chamberlin

La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la, la, la, laI've been thinkin'
I've been thinkin', I've been thinkin' too much
I just wanna live now for a little while
And cast my dreams to the windDon't wanna wonder
Don't wanna wonder what it's all about
I'm just workin' for a livin' singin' with my friends
As I cast my dreams to the windMaryland, I'm comin' home
Never worry about what I did wrong
And that I'll never be what my daddy wanted me to be
And I'll never see what my mama's dreams wereI will sing
La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la, la, la, laI wanna fly
I wanna fly down the highway
To my home away from home
This funky, funky club on Fairfax Avenue to see youAnd I'll never give up Because what is there to give up anyway?
I'm just workin' for a livin', workin' for my pay
In Maryland it's raining somewhere in some cafeHey, hey, Maryland, I'm comin' home
Never worry about what I did wrong
And that I'll never be what my daddy wanted me to be
I'll never see what my mama's dreams wereBut I can sing
La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, yeah
La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, yeah
La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la
