

Vacation in Tokyo

Urge Overkill

All by herself
At least I want her to be
How could something so good
Just have to be so fragile? All the birds are singing
High up in the trees
Now she's gone
I'm feelin' the breeze There's no more time
Death's gonna come as it pleases
So give me back my fantasy
Give me back my better day Imagine
We're fragile
(Hopeless) I guess, it's time I was leaving
Honey, think of me
Three thousand feet up
And flying free There's no more time
Death's gonna come as he pleases
So give me back my fantasy
Give me back my better days Imagine
We're fragile And whenever you think of me
Can you picture me in my robe?
My vacation in Tokyo Whatever we had was gone
And it helps when you change the scene
I can't really say for how long
My vacation in Tokyo
My vacation in Tokyo
