Move This Mountain

Sophie Ellis-Bextor

What do you want from me?
I stand before you, no attempt to leave
I'm too tired to disagree
I stand before you no chance, I'll believe this warning
Oh, do you know, I would have done anything for you?
Take this chance, I won't repeat this
I can do anything that's put beside of you
And I can move any mountains that you make
I'll lift you up and my back will never break
And I can move this mountain
Come and take the rest of me
I never thought I wouldn't want you near
This is all I'll ever be, I understand you
Look around to see this dawning
Oh, does it show, I wanted to catch you falling?
Oh, do you know, I would have done anything for you?
Take this chance, I won't repeat this
I can do anything that's put beside of you
And I can move any mountains that you make
I'll lift you up and my back will never break

And I can move this mountain
I can do anything that's put beside of you
And I can move any mountains that you make
And I can move this mountain
And I can move this mountain
And I can move this mountain
And I can move this mountain
And I can move this mountain
And I can move this mountain
And I can move this mountain
And I can move this mountain
Oh, do you know, I would have done anything for you?
I can do anything that's put beside of you
And I can move any mountains that you make
I'll lift you up and my back will never break
And I can move this mountain
I can do anything that's put beside of you
And I can move any mountains that you make

I'll lift you up and my back will never break
And I can move this mountain
