You're Everything

Tammy Wynette

You're everything my heart has cried for Everything I've heard and tried for
You're the only thing I glide for you belong to me
You're the only one I dream for, only one I cheat
And scheme forNo one else I'd fight and scream for you belong to me
You're the one thing I can't do without
And you're the only one I'd never doubt
You're exactly what I knew you'd be
You're the reason I'm completely meYou're the only one who wants me
Only one some day will haunt me
You're everything I wanted it to be
Yes you're everything that means everything to me
Yes you're everything that means everything to me
