Bloodlines

ICELANDIA

[Verse 1]
Listen, brother, with your ears against the ground
Sister, take my hand and tell me how
To live

Chorus
If you could trace my bloodlines
What would you find?
Are the sins of my forefathers
The sins of mine?

Too many to reconcile

[Verse 2]
Listen, brother, with your ears against the ground
Sister, take my hand and tell me how
To live

Chorus

Too many to reconcile(x4)

[Bridge]
If you trace my bloodlines
Hope is a hard call to call
But we're standing on shoulders of giants
Knowing we're all going to fall

Chorus
If you could trace my bloodlines
What would you find?
Are the sins of my forefathers
The sins of mine?

Too many to reconcile

[Chorus]

Too many to reconcile

[Chorus]

Too many to reconcile(x4)
