Gone Today

Ollabelle

There was doubt as cold as winter
There was doubt as cold as winter
But it's gone todayThere was darkness at my doorstep
There was darkness at my doorstep
But it's gone, gone, gone todayThis very morning, I awoke to Someone calling my name
'T was a gallet band of angels
And I'm gone, gone, gone todayWake up, wake up my children
Wake up, I'm on my way
I'll be seated at his table
And I'm gone, gone, gone todayLovin' friend, do not mourn me
Celebrate me on my way
All the tears you shed in sadness
Bid them gone, gone, gone todayWake up, wake up my children
Wake up, wake up, send me on my way
For today I've heard my calling
And I'm gone, gone, gone today
And I'm gone, gone, gone today
