Living All Alone

June G.

There used to be a time in my life when we were lovers
And we shared this apartment together just us two
I think of how we planned to get married
Saying love how I used to know you wellWhoa oh I can't stand this living all alone
Whoa oh I can't stand this living all alone
Oh no no no whoaNow I love whats in my life and I find it's a mellow world
I'm not even the same I'm a different girl
Yesterday I was somebody's baby
Now today I'm a woman on my ownWhoa oh I can't stand this living all alone
Whoa oh I can't stand this living all aloneIt feels good to have somebody hold you tight
It feels good to have somebody love you right
Who would end all my long and lonely nights?Whoa oh I can't stand this living all alone
Whoa oh I can't stand this living all alone
Whoa oh I can't stand this living all, all aloneOh, I don't want to be alone
Oh I don't want to be alone
We used to be such lovers
We used to care for one anotherI don't want to be, I don't want to be alone
No, no, no no, no, oh, no, I don't want to be alone
No, no, no, I need ya, I love ya
Come back to me, ohI love you
Oh please, please come back to me baby
Ooh yeah, I can't stand to be alone
I can't stand it, don't want to be alone
