

Roses

Lucy Mason

Knowing it's over
Puts a hole in the heart
It's not always best you forget
The torch may not be mine
But I'm, still here
I'm still here

Nothing but a brave face I'll put on for you
I put on my best dress, I look the part
You know I do

The night is over
The curtains close
You left me roses
But never showed
Our time is over
And now I know
I'm better off and I'm

A lucky one

I just wanted you to see
I want you to be proud, I think
I see at the end of it all
I wanted you to know me
But I'm still here
I'm still here

Now I know
When I'm gone
We both know
That I don't belong

Oh, I'm better off and I'm
A lucky one
