

Golden Armour

Henrik Wikstrom & Klas Johan Wahl

Lyrics to Golden Armour by Henrik-Wikstr  m and Klas Baggstr  m

Little girl in this world tried so hard to put up with it.
Took some time but she grew all things that they do
She hid it

But the power gonna change now gonna change gonna change
If it doesn  t kill you makes you strong makes you strong
I am not afraid now and without a fight
No one can break me and they gonna underestimate me (yay)
This girl isn  t powerless, fireless but I am merciless I won  t go down
Not without a fight cause I  m a warrior in Golden Armour

Can you hear my voice breaking through
You  re alright, I  m alright don  t let anybody reduce you

But the power gonna change now gonna change gonna change
If it doesn  t kill you make you strong makes you strong
I am not afraid now, and without a fight no one can break me (no one can break me now)
And they gonna underestimate me (hey)
This girl isn  t powerless, fireless but I am merciless I won  t go down not without a fight
Cause I  m a warrior in Golden Armour

My power  s turned on
You will see I am strong
I  ll fight for you, in Golden Armour
I  ll fight for you

This girl isn  t powerless, fireless but I am merciless
I won  t go down
Not without a fight cause I  m a warrior in Golden Armour
