

Everyday (Smoothed Over Remix)

MC Lyte

Hook:

Every day I need my shit done in a special way everyday Off the top see me and want to serve just thinkin about what they need ain't that some nerve, now look here 24 hours and 7 whole days, I demand my respect I demand my praise, everyday that I wake I gotta have everything done with no mistakes I take it incredibly slow don't try to rush me no means no, I never said a no that meant yes other women get taken for granted I guess I got a wish list that must be fulfilled and you gets none until I get my toes sucked and my eyebrows plucked I need my car waxed and floor shellac I need my back rubbed and da bubbled in the tub that float to the bed so that we can make love

Hook:
Every day I need my shit done in a special way everyday

Every day I need my shit done in a special way everyday It ain't to ask for when i come off tour to have my truck washed or my body massaged, all the bills paid i send home all my dough and you being my man it just ain't for show all the lovey dovey yeah that is sweet but honey bunny yeah gotta earn your keep but don't sleep cause I need a lot done and cold harded yeah check out whatever is clever and get to stepping if you know something better if not then respect whatcha got meanwhile I got a new tide at the lot pick it up and bring it back to the spot this is how we do it this is how we do it everyday

I need it done in a special way baby, tell them how it goes

Hook:
Every day I need my shit done in a special way everyday

Every day I need my shit done in a special way everyday On the real I need an man that understands me and realizes the reality. I'm in the m.c. industry which means I want to live lovely I gotta make money listen so never ask me to give it less then what I got if it's too hot then raise up out my spot if it's my trade i made up the black ace of spade alone in the world it's me ya can't fade it's my life, I do it my way you don't like my way, hit the highway see I'm special not because i'm mc lyte, but because I'm a women with the gift to bear life, it's done yes I've rested my case now run pick up my dermalogica for my face this is how it goes down everyday I need it done in a special way babyHook:

Every day I need my shit done in a special way everyday
Every day I need my shit done in a special way everyday
