In My Shoes (feat. Meeko)

Titi

uh let's take it back when we first meet, fell asleep on the telephone, waking up to a good morning text remember we said we was gonna be together forever but i guess forever turn like like into never damn, they said that one until waist time but ain't no coming back you can wait with your too deep into your lies ain't gonna make up shit we ain't gonna make up bitch aye meek girl sing that shit uh you always drive me crazy
you used to me my baby all i wanted from you was all your loving all i wanted to do was love you right and i don't want nothing from you but you you never kept it true but i guess that's what we gotta do damn i wish i could put you in my shoes i guess it's back to the old me the old me the mf peep better ask about me they be raising up around lthugs they can't play me man that shit is crazy seeing all them lies nigga i'm TT you must of forgot must not know who you fuckin with i swear to god i never been a stupid bitch, what when we hooked up when we sat down made agreement and we vould that we always be together thru what ever damn but you fucked up man why you fucked up not another nigga about to look up to it supposed to be me and you but now me and you is threw nigga
you always drive me crazy
told me that you love, told me that you care either way it goes you were never there lied to my face, always got my hopes up all because of you i'll never know true love right or wrong you broke my heart either way it goes, it was fake from the start i gave you all my love but still wasn't enough always had another chick you really is a scrub man can't even tell me shit i always down from the jump and i always kept it lit always kept your head up you is fill of shit try to kept it real but you said you with a new bitch look at you know with all this broke bitches always moving fast don't know bitches where you get her from yeah take her back can't nobody top me and yeah that's a fact

and i don't want nothing from you but you never kept it true but i guess that's what we have to go i wish i can put you in my shoe
