Nothin Left to Talk About

Lorenzo

So you went and lost your faith, lost your mind
I think you need to take a breath and take your time Itâ€™s never been whatâ€™s mine is yours and yours is mine Everything I make you take and spend every dime, yeah

Why do you turn the engine on and turn away
When I put the hammer down you hit the breaks Never want to compromise, I give you take Feels Iâ€™m dreaminâ€™ when Iâ€™m wide awake, Iâ€™m wide awake

And it feels like weâ€™ve got nothin left to talk about
and it feels like Itâ€™s stuck inside we never let it out hey, hey, hey the honeymoon is over
hey, hey, hey the honeymoon is over hey, hey i guess nothin last forever HEY, Hey NOW thereâ€™s nothin left to talk about

You always give me lots of lip and attitude Livinâ€™ with your schizophrenic change of moods
Try to tell me Iâ€™m the one whoâ€™s so confused
IF I get it figured out then you change the rules, yeah
I think you oughta listen up and listen good

You know you never say youâ€™re wrong â€“ you never could So Let me make it clear and sure itâ€™s understood If nothinâ€™s gonna change you know Iâ€™m gone for good â€“ Iâ€™m gone for good

Itâ€™s not so complicated (so long now) Itâ€™s not so complicated (so long) Itâ€™s not so complicated (so...) donâ€™t make it complicated
