

Love Don't Let Me Down

Hayes Carll

I never been the lucky one
Watched my dreams all turning wrong
They left me alone, thinking, they'd come back some day
Well it turns out I was wrong
Time don't wait for anyone
Now I stand here like a school kid hoping that it's not too late
Oh here goes my heart again
Foolish as it's ever been
Always leaving me somewhere that I couldn't stay
I'm gonna look behind
There's nothing there I wanna find
So I stand here and face you and promise to not run away
Under the sun, ain't nothing new
There's lovers and leavers and moments forgotten
And dreams that don't ever come true
And even though I'm afraid
I'm gonna stand my ground
If it's not asking too much
Love don't let me down
Now here I stand in front of you
Just hoping that my best will do
I'm a good man I'm a loving man who just needs someone to hold
I can see it in your face
Your love can fill up this empty space
And the years up ahead don't have to feel so damn alone
Under the sun, ain't nothing new
And maybe it's crazy to keep chasing after
These dreams that don't ever come true
And even though I'm afraid
I'm gonna stand my ground
If it's not asking too much
Love don't let me down
If it's not asking too much
Love don't let me down
