

Heaven or Hell (with Allison Moorer)

Steve Earle

I'm rolling down a blacktop highway hole in my chest 'cause my heart's in your hand
I know it ain't okay but I can't stop wantin' you I do the best that I can I'm starin' in a highbeam headlight
Burnin' your name on the back of my brain
I swear I hear you callin' I might have to turn around 'cause I'm goin' insane I love you baby but I just can't tell
This kinda of love comes from Heaven or Hell
Heaven or Hell
Heaven or Hell New moon against a long dark midnight blue
Ain't a star any brighter than you
I look in your eyes and see that spark inside and it's all I can do
To keep tellin' myself there ain't no way
You're gonna do me like you did then
I'm standin' my ground on feet of clay
Oh no here I go again There ain't nothin' nobody can say
There ain't nothin' nobody can do
Get down on my knees and pray
Oooh I love you baby but I just can't tell
This kinda of love comes from Heaven or Hell
Heaven or Hell
Heaven or Hell I love you baby but I just can't tell
I love you baby but I just can't tell
