Not Like Me

The Muffs

Doing everything I can
And I'm feeling okay, oh yeah
But whenever you are near
I want to run away, oh yeahWhenever I come alive
It seems that you are dead
Could you ever take the time
And be a man and say?You are not like me
You are not like me
You are not like me
You are not like meAnd if you should ever go
Away another day, oh yeah
There might be a world of me
And I won't be afraid, oh yeahDoing the impossible
Where I could never win
And I know what you're thinking
In the answer you bringYou are not like me
You are not like me
You are not like me
You are not like meDoing everything I can
And I'm feeling okay, oh yeah
But whenever you are near
I want to run away, oh yeahWhenever I come alive
It seems that you are dead
Could you ever take the time
And be a man and say?You are not like me
You are not like me
You are not like me
You are not like meYou are not like me
Me, me, me, me, me, me, yeah
Me, me, me, me, me, me, yeah, oh
