

Obscure Alliance

Scar Symmetry

I am the conscious soul
Supreme awareness
The serpent rising
Following the spine Nothing has really changed
No nothing's really new
Everything is still the same
But I see in different ways Flesh and spirit
Obscure alliance pass unseen
Soul in zenith
Unharmd it stares into the sun With death as guiding star
I am transcendence
Within the rising I see the fall Nothing has really changed
No nothing's really new
Everything is still the same
But I see in different ways Flesh and spirit
Obscure alliance pass unseen
Soul in zenith
Unharmd it stares into the sun The empire within swirls and changes
Never stagnant, ever morphing
Aligned with the unseen Flesh and spirit
Obscure alliance pass unseen
Soul in zenith
Unharmd it stares into the sun Worlds in hiding
Obscure alliance of the planes
Still abiding
Unbound in every phase
