Dangerous Words

Ash Koley

You might get burned if you're playing with fire you might fall walking on the high wire danger makes the heart broke longer you gotta give a little more than you're givin i gotta get a little better at forgiving don't say it if your heart's not in it it's a risk we have to take it's okay to be afraid'Cause these are dangerous words we speak are you ready for all it baby we can't go back before we try to unopen our eyes these are dangerous words cause these are dangerous wordsSo are you ready for the fight that you're pickin'? are you ready for the kind of commitment? are you ready for some heavier lifting? it's like riding on back of motorcycle blindfolded pulling in a rifle
cause i kind of like feeling afraid'Cause these are dangerous words we speak
are you ready for all it baby
cause these are dangerous wordsSo i let my heart speak for me and if you listen closely it's more than enough so i let my heart speak for me and if you listen closely it's more than enough'Cause these are dangerous words we speak
are you ready for all it baby
'cause these are dangerous words we speak
are you ready for all it baby
