Please Forgive Me

Westbound Train

Give me a break, now mister
You've got me all wrong
You've got me holding on to things
You've said and done

I see you struggling
Oh, I've been there before
And I promise that it never gets easier

All the lines have been crossed
And your message was lost
I know how it seem
But it's not what I mean

Will you please forgive me mister?
You've got me all wrong
If you could please forgive me mister
You live and you learn

Please forgive me

Now you've seen your treasure
You've traveled your course
Now you wonder how it could of all worked out
And my hearts been broken
And I've paid the cost
But I just can't seem to forgive myself

All the things that I've done
All the things that I've said
I could never believe
That they came from my head

Will you please forgive me mister?
You've got me all wrong
If you could please forgive me mister
You live and you learn

Please forgive me

All the things that I've done
All the things that I've said
I could never believe
That they came from my head

Will you please forgive me mister?
You've got me all wrong
Will you please forgive me mister?
You live and you learn
Will you please forgive me mister?
You've got me all wrong
If you could please forgive me mister?
You live and you learn

Please forgive me
And give me a break

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by HIMMEL, EVAN
Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing, Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/