Break Me Down

Burning Heads

Be yourself for an hour
Tell me what is wrong
It's allright
I don't mind
If you're not at home
You've been lying
Now you've flown away
You've been lying
It's a sunny day
You can go wherever you want to go
Can't you see that
You don't need these walls around youBring me down
Break me down
You can bring me downIt's a sunny day
You can do just what you want to
You can break it down
We can try we'll seeThrow off your disguise
Please let things be clear
Bring me down
Break me down
You can bring me down
