

Ghost of Karelia (Live at Brixton)

Mastodon

Wrathful ones nine eyes gaze
Holding skulls
Filled and laced
With human bloodShades of darkened skies
Emptiness
Twilight holding through
OfferingLife in zenith
Bulls blood shot eyes
Flattened portrait of the night skyFeel crust hum
Facing the North
Vapor spaceBetween heaven and Earth
Wisdom and the knower
A planet collide
Divisible we fallHear dirt waves
Wading forth
Vapor spaceHow long has it been since we flew through the shadows
I have walked on many other planetsSinister twin Choking on fear
Bonded iron
Sink to the core
