The Sweet Goodbye

Kelley Hunt

Little worry that it's all gone wrong
The truth I wanted is just a lie
The life I dreamed of didn't come along
Might be time for the sweet goodbye

I look around me through the quiet night
What they're planting it grew my pride
No longer waiting for that old reply
I start singing the sweet goodbye

Goodbye old ways that were once my friend
Goodbye heartaches that will never end
Goodbye fame and how hard I tried
It is time for the sweet goodbye

Oh, though we play our alibi
Sing hallelujah go dry your eye
You've gotten a challenge and you don't know why
It must be time for the sweet goodbye

Oh, goodbye old ways that were once my friend
Goodbye year heartache that will never never end
Goodbye fame and how hard I tried
It is time, it is time for the sweet goodbye

Whoa, blessed release from the sweet goodbye

Lyrics Submitted by Mike Mac intyre

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/