

Are You Still Mad

Alanis Morissette

Are you still mad I kicked you out of bed?
Are you still mad I gave you ultimatums?
Are you still mad I compared you to all
My forty year old male friends?
Are you still mad I shared our problems
With everybody? Are you still mad I had a an emotional affair?
Are you still mad I tried to mold you
Into who I wanted you to be?
Are you still mad I didn't trust your intentions?
Of course you are, of course you are
Of course you are, of course you are Are you still mad that I flirted wildly?
Are you still mad I had a tendency to mother you?
Are you still mad that I had one foot out the door?
Are you still mad that we slept together even after we had ended it?
Of course you are, of course you are
Of course you are, of course you are Are you still mad I wore the pants most of the time?
Are you still mad that I seemed to focus only on your potential?
Are you still mad that I threw in the towel?
Are you still mad that I gave up long before you did?
Of course you are, of course you are
Of course you are, of course you are
