Shame

The Planet Smashers

All that lies and turned up eyes
Stares like they're to blame
It seems as though you're trying to control but you can't trick me this way
Shame, hey, I wont play your game,
Hey, they're driving me away,
Hey, I wont fall for your actions of deceit,
driven by your misery and shame
Gestures of kindness manipulate for your benefits Acting like you're unaware but it's hard not to miss Off hand comments fill my head with things I can't explain, silent sneers and crocodile tears, rolling down the drain Shame, hey, I wont play your game,
Hey, they're driving me away,
Hey, I wont fall for your actions of deceit,
driven by your misery and shame
Yeah I try, not to let it shows, as this felling in my grows Subtil words twist the knife with the things that they don't say, don't want to feel this way I won't feel this way I won't feel your shame
