

Fun & Games (Live At the Ritz)

D.R.I.

Step on mine, I'll step on yours
Take what's mine, I'll take what's yours
Bleed on me, I'll spit on youInconsideration part of the game
Voted rules are always changed
Plans are made but rearranged
And only one thing stays the sameYell at me, I'll yell at you
Push on me, I'll push on you
Fuck with me and I'll screw youI turn it up, you'll turn it down
I speed up, you'll slow down
And you'll reject what I acceptInconsideration part of the game
Voted rules are always changed
Plans are made but rearranged
And only one thing stays the sameYou stay healthy, I'll be sick
You dominate but you've been tricked
Think its' over, it's just begun
To you a nightmare, to me it's fun
