

Nikki Ray

TQ

I met a girl named Nikki
I guess you could say she was a sex fiend
Met on a strip in Vegas
In the pageant represent leather jeans I blessed that pepper mill parking lot
When she first went down on me
I guess it's on a mountain top
'Cause since then nobody had the right technique I still got her number in my iPhone
But I'm gonna save it till a rainy day
I hear she got a man and I can't help wonder
If she given it to him the same way
Miss Nikki Ray
Standing there naked with a bottle of tanqueray
She say she don't need no eyes
She just wanna drink astray
Oh Nikki I miss the way you free me till the break of day
This one really ain't that nice
Don't tell Nikki Ray Me and Nikki should've been real cool
'Cause we both understood our roles
She would have all the cheating at home
And I would go and cheat on the road One night we came out drunk from the club
And Mellissa came with us too
I remember passed out in the master
But I woke up naked in the bottom guest room She said, thank you for a funky time
And you could tell miss Nikki when she wakes up
Don't drink so much next time
Miss Nikki Ray
Standing there naked with a bottle of tanqueray
She say she don't need no eyes
She just wanna drink astray
Oh Nikki I miss the way you free me till the break of day
This one really ain't that nice
Don't tell Nikki Ray Just don't tell Nikki no
'Cause she ain't gonna like it when she hear this song
Oh no, no no
And don't tell Mellissa no
'Cause she ain't gonna like it when she hear this song
Oh no, no no I say come back Nikki come back Miss Nikki Ray
Standing there naked with a bottle of tanqueray
She say she don't need no eyes

She just wanna drink astray
Oh Nikki I miss the way you free me till the break of day
This one really ain't that nice
Don't tell Nikki Ray
