

I've Lost My Baby

Fleetwood Mac

I'm waiting this mornin'
I'm waiting for my baby to come back home
I'm waiting this mornin'
I'm waiting for my baby to come back home You know she left me this mornin'
And I don't know where she gone She said she wasn't gonna leave me
She said she'd always stay by my side
She said she wasn't gonna leave me
She said she'd always gonna stay by my side This time she mistreated me
I don't know how many times she lied Well I love my baby
And I'll tell the world I do
I love my baby
I'll tell the world I do But now I've lost my baby
I don't know what in the world I'm gonna do, yeah
